By receipt of this information the Insured and their broker acknowledge their responsibility for keeping this information strictly confidential, except as required for the above purposes. WARNING: Claim reserves by their nature are estimates only and are subject to change. Casualty claims can be complex and can take many years to reach resolution. Over that time, it is not unusual for claims costs to escalate, sometimes dramatically, from current estimates. Further, for many reasons liability claims are often reported after a policy year has ended - sometimes years later. Therefore, this report is likely not a complete or final view of the ultimate incurred claims for this Insured.
