6. Items for Discussion and Reports

6.1 2025 Work Plan

The Committee reviewed their proposed 2025 work plan, focusing on initiatives designed to foster age-friendly practices throughout the Town of Orangeville. The Committee discussed the scope of various projects, desired budget requirements, strategies for effective public communication, and discussed key timelines and dates.

The Committee highlighted the need to include a seniors transportation communication plan in order to provide clear and effective communication to senior citizens regarding transportation services, including updates on routes, out of service buses, and service disruptions. The Committee invited J. Austin, Manager, Communications, and T. Dulisse, Manager, Transportation and Development, Infrastructure Services, to attend their January 21 meeting to discuss this matter further.

2024-018

6.3 Snow Removal Rebate Program - Pilot Project Update

Councillor A. Macintosh, Chair, announced that a staff report will be coming forward to Council in December, 2024, providing an overview of the proposed snow removal pilot program. Additionally, he announced that the Access Orangeville Committee will also be contributing $5000 for the project, and that individuals with disabilities would also be eligible to apply and receive a grant.

The Committee discussed various aspects of the program, including the requirements and application process, placing a significant emphasis on financial requirements and applicant eligibility, aiming to ensure minimal administration of the program. The Committee discussed challenges such as defining the age requirement and deciding on an applicable means test. To streamline the process, the Committee agreed that applicant self-validation would suffice, with no means test or receipts being required.

6.4 Senior Discount Flyer

Sharon Doherty, Manager, Recreation and Events, Community Services, advised the Committee on the following additions and updates to the Seniors Discount Business Directory:

- Quest for Cakes Bakery - Buy two (2) individual frozen meals, get one (1) free.
- Main Street Station - 10% discount on lunch, Tuesday - Friday, 65+

Additionally, Ms. Doherty announced that work will begin with the Communication Division in Q1 2025 to create and print an update version of the Seniors' Discount Flyer.

7. Correspondence
