Dear Historical Society,

My maiden name is McKennitt & I grew up at 49 East Broadway. My dad owned McKennitt's Radio & TV. While looking up Orangerville's history, I came upon the information that there is a walking tour available. While looking at all of the great photos of all the old home (I remember most of them), I came upon a picture of my grandmother's house at #10 Wellington Street. Her name was Ursula Brown McKennitt. She often talked about growing up on Brown's farm. I found this very old picture postcard amongst her collection of cards & letters & was hoping you could add it to your historical collection you have been useful for it than me.

I would love a copy of your walking trail book.
Regards Heather Peters, 452 Crystal Green Way.
